Our Winemaking Philosophy

is to enhance the expression of our site though minimal handling in the winery, natural or wild yeast fermentation, extended maceration and hand picking. Oak is given a supportive role. Hand harvest is seen as part of a series of harvests commencing with "green harvests" prior to full veraison in order to achieve a balance between fruit and vine.

Current Tasting Notes

2007 Sparkling

Light in colour, Whispering Hills sparkling has a fragrant nose of toasty yeast & bread followed by a delicate, creamy, finely structured palate of honey, brioche and minerals with a long, crisp finish.

2010 Riesling

A beautiful nose of Orange Blossom

Light straw with a pale green hue, Whispering Hills Riesling displays very fine intense aromas of orange blossom, citrus and minerals. The palate is equally intense and particularly long driven by fine citrus flavours and succulent, minerally mid palate richness. Well balanced in acidity, this wine should cellar for up to 10 years.

2010 Chardonnay

Powerful nectarine & citrus flavours

Brilliant pale straw in color, the 2010 Whispering Hills Chardonnay has a bouquet of ripe fig and citrus intermingled with hints of cashews. A rich layered palate displays powerful nectarine and citrus flavours supported by a mid-palate of stone fruit and cashews. A long lingering finish.

2010 Barbera

The Whispering Hills 2010 Barbera has a bright intense ruby red colour. This is a dry and fruity wine. It has an obvious smooth, full bodied flavour with scents of red berries with a soft finish. Released only a couple of weeks ago this wine is absolutely fabulous.

2009 Cabernet Sauvignon

Brilliant deep red with crimson hue, displays a lifted bouquet of violets, blackberry and spice. The palate comprises of beautifully integrated spicy oak, enveloped by rich loganberry, blackberry fruits and damson plums enhanced by fine grainy tannins. The wine finishes long and even.

2009 Bendigo Shiraz

Grown on ancient quartz and ironstone gravels Whispering Hills 2009 Shiraz displays a amalgam of mocha and spicy overtones on the bouquet followed by an opulent palate showing a rich array of liquorice, fruitcake and black pepper. The finish is long and supple complemented by ripe and grainy tannins. A wine to be savoured now or to be cellared for many years.
